

We are a non-profit association integrated by four Guatemalan women who have been working for 12 years to be the link of communication between birth and adoptive families, with the aim of helping them maintain and strengthen a healthy relationship. De Familia a Familia was consolidated as an association in 2009 with the intention of expanding our field of action to more families in need. We facilitate the contact through photographs, letters and personal meetings.